

Job Vacancy: Security Consultant (Full-time)

Forth Global is an internationally-oriented security risk management company and total solution provider in terms of travel safety and security. We believe that security should enable organizations to do what they do best in complex environments and frontier/emerging markets. As an innovative and fast-growing company, we use our knowledge of business and organizational processes to make robust security solutions.

We provide security training to individual employees as well as assistance and response to the management level of organizations in case of an emergency abroad. Based in The Hague, the Netherlands, we work for a variety of clients that work and travel across the globe - including companies, governments and NGOs.

Forth Global seeks to hire a junior professional who will report to the Senior Security Consultant of the Risk Advisory department. You will join a highly motivated team engaged in providing security risk management advice through security risk assessments, crisis and security management training, and policy development. The security consultant will work on all aspects related to risk advisory and consultancy work.

Your responsibilities

- Independently support our customers by conducting security risk assessments and drafting of documents (e.g. Country Security Plans, evacuation protocols etc.) either by proxy or after assessments in the field;
- Support policy development trajectories and performing security maturity surveys and scans;
- Assist in the further development of our analysis and OSINT methodology and;
- Organize crisis management reviews and simulations.

Your profile

- We look for a candidate with the right balance between analytical, commercial and communicative skills;
- You have obtained a Master degree in a relevant discipline (Security management/International Relations/Conflict Studies etc.);
- Excellent spoken and written English, and, ideally, Dutch. Additional languages such as French, German, Spanish, Arabic or Russian are considered an asset;
- Enthusiasm, putting the client first and being able to work independently but towards a common goal is something we do not compromise on;
- Affinity with international travel or assistance in a non-Western setting;
- Willingness to travel internationally, including to remote areas;
- ASIS APP is an asset.

What we offer

- Guidance in a challenging environment, with trainings and many opportunities for initiative and growth;
- Flexibility between working from our office in The Hague as well as from home;
- A competitive salary;
- Travel business card for work-related movement;
- Laptop and phone will also be provided.
